

ENTHUSIASM FOR ROSE AT MADISON

The Assembly Chamber Crowded, and Many Could Not Enter.

VILAS PRESIDED

Introduced Mayor Rose in a Few Well Chosen Words.

WAS GREAT INTEREST

(Special To The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—David S. Rose, the Democratic nominee for Governor, spoke here last night to a large and enthusiastic audience at the Assembly chamber in the capitol. The vast hall was crowded with people and many were forced to stand in the corridors, not being able to get inside of the doors. His speech was one of the most tempered he had yet delivered and all of his remarks were well received by the audience, which was composed of Madison's best people.

Vilas Presides
Former United States Senator William F. Vilas presided over the meeting and introduced Mayor Rose in a few well-chosen and appropriate words. Among others who were on the platform with the nominee and his special party were Hon. B. W. Jones, former Mayors Alford and John Corcoran, George Lewis and M. J. Regan. There were many university students in the assembly and their repeated cheers increased the enthusiasm of the occasion.

Vilas' Speech.
In addressing the meeting at the opening ex-Senator Vilas said: "The newspapers have said I have returned to politics after six years of inactivity. I have never been out of politics. I have always had the best interests of the democratic party at heart and am here tonight to greet you all and say how fortunate it is that we are all together again."

Many Free Silver Men
One of the noticeable features of the meeting was the fact that there were many of the Bryan democrats in the audience hobnobbing with the old line democrats and everything seemed to point towards a complete unity of the democratic party. There were also many ladies and small children in the audience and aside from the enthusiastic greetings given the mayor on his arrival all was orderly and attention.

PIONEER SETTLER DIES OF APOPLEXY

David Van Wart, of Evansville, Has a Stroke After Listening to Mayor Rose.

(Special To The Gazette.) Evansville, Sept. 30.—David Van Wart, for fifty years a resident of the town of Porter, died this morning as the result of a stroke of apoplexy he had on Tuesday of last week. He leaves a widow and five sons, two of whom, Lou and David, reside in Evansville. Dan and Frank reside in Beloit and Charles on a farm near here.

Was Much Excited
Last Tuesday Mayor Rose spoke in Evansville and Mr. Van Wart, who was a life-long democrat, attended the meeting. After it was over he went to Rose and told him that he was a life-long democrat and was one still, and being one he could not vote for him for governor as the democratic nominee. He then went to his son, Lou's store and while talking there dropped to the floor with a stroke of apoplexy. He was carried to his home and died this morning at nine o'clock.

An Old Settler
Mr. Van Wart came to Wisconsin with his parents in 1844. He was born in New York state in 1835. He lived on his father's farm in the town of Porter until 1852, when he joined the party of young men who went to California in search of gold. The party went overland and took two months in crossing the plains. Mr. Van Wart spent two years on the Pacific coast and then returned to Wisconsin, buying with his father the Ball tavern between Evansville and Janesville. He was proprietor of this for eight years when he sold out and again became a farmer.

Married in 1857
In 1857 he was married to Miss Ann Jones, a native of Wales. It was only last spring that he left his farm and moved to Evansville to make his home near his two sons. The interment will be at Evansville.

BAD FIRE BURNS ROGERS' HOME

Millionaire Oil Magnate's New York House Badly Damaged by Flames.

New York, Sept. 30.—(Special.)—The home of H. H. Rogers, the Standard Oil magnate, at Madison avenue and Fifty-seventh street was threatened with destruction yesterday by fire, caused by the crossing of electric wires, running between the second and third floors. It is estimated that the damage will reach $50,000 caused mostly by water.

Valuable Painting
A canvas in the library, "The Landing of Columbus," which cost Mr. Rogers $20,000, was burned beyond redemption. His library, which contained valuable books, was reduced to a mass of smoldering paper.

The firemen had to cut part of the floor away to get at the fire, and the flooded library emptied its water into the bathroom beneath. Gilt chairs floated around as if on a lake. The parlor also had its share of water, which damaged carpets and bric-a-brac worth thousands of dollars.

For Renovation
Mr. Rogers is in Fair Haven, Mass., and the painters and decorators had taken possession of the house to renovate it for his reception two days hence. George Sersof, the caretaker with a dozen women servants, discovered the fire and in their efforts to quench the flames were almost smothered. They climbed out of the third story window to the scaffold used by the painters and were lowered to the ground amid the cheers of the hundreds of persons that had gathered.

ELDORADO NEGROES IN FEAR OF OUTLAWS

Adjutant General Smith Reports the Situation to Be Serious at That Point.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 30.—Adjutant General Smith has returned from Eldorado, where he had been several days investigating the race war situation. He made the following report to Governor Yates:

"I have the honor to make the following report of the situation at Eldorado: After careful and searching personal investigation of the race war at this place I find the situation still serious indeed. The general feeling among the prominent loyal people is that a vast organization exists, and that no colored person is safe from violence to property or person without the protection of the troops. I made a general tour of Redwood, the negro neighborhood, about two miles from Eldorado, and interviewed prominent colored families of that settlement, and found all of them very much disturbed over the situation. To a man they want the troops to remain for their protection. They have fine farms and neat homes, living in peace, happiness and prosperity, except the dread of the outlaws now terrorizing their brethren in Eldorado."

August Nabeck was accidentally shot at Wausau, but will recover.

Peary, the arctic explorer, who has arrived here from the north on his way to Washington, where he will report to the Navy Department for duty, says it is his belief that the arctic region is one of the best places on earth for persons afflicted with pulmonary diseases. In proof of the health-giving conditions there, he said that nearly everybody who went up there came back weighing more and in a much better state of health generally. He did not bring any Eskimos south for the reason that those he brought before had a hard time, many of them having succumbed to pulmonary diseases.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING FOR PHILIPPINES

(Special To The Gazette.) Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—Maj. Elijah Halford, U. S. A., is in Washington, trying to raise $200,000 for the erection of a Y. M. C. A. building in Manila for the use of the army.

NEGRO BAND ROBS GRAVES OF BODIES

Indianapolis Medical College Supplied With Cadavers From the Cemeteries.

Indianapolis, Sept. 30.—The wholesale robbery of graves in the cemeteries about Indianapolis was brought to a close by the arrest of seven negroes, all of whom confessed. Warrants were also issued for a prominent physician, demonstrator of anatomy in an Indianapolis medical college, in which two stolen bodies were found about ten days ago; an interne, and the white janitor of the college.

Rufus Cantrill, one of the negroes, made a complete confession and implicated the others. He said the physician accompanied the negroes on several of the grave-robbing expeditions. Upward of one hundred graves, it is said, have been robbed during the last three months. The detectives say the negroes were armed with shotguns and equipped with horses and wagons to do the work. The bodies were sold to different colleges, which opened their winter term within the last week. Cantrill said he and the other negroes visited Mount Jackson cemetery almost every time anyone was buried in the place.

"We pretty near cleaned that place out," he said. "I don't believe that we have missed anybody who has been planted there since July."

HAY-WADSWORTH WEDDING PRIVATE

Second Daughter of the Secretary of State Privately Married.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—The marriage of Miss Alice Hay, second daughter of the Secretary of State, to James W. Wadsworth of Genesee, N. Y., which will take place today at The Fells, Lake Sunapee, is to be private. Only the relatives of the contracting parties will be present. It is rumored that the official world here will later receive announcement cards, but so far no intimation has been given of the event except that conveyed through the newspapers.

Unusual Precedent
Under these circumstances no presents have been sent from Washington not even from the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, nor from any of the cabinet officers. This is a most unusual occurrence, and marks a departure in the social and official world. Hitherto it has been the custom for the cabinet set to regard a marriage as almost a family affair, and usually all of the families combine to give a present. This was done when General Alger's daughter was married.

To Avoid Difficulties
At the marriage of Miss Helen Hay to Payne Whitney last February Mrs. Hay drew the line strictly between official and personal friends. Several of the cabinet officers took umbrage at this, and no attempt was made to mark the occasion by gifts. It is presumed here that Mrs. Hay had the nuptials of her second daughter celebrated out of Washington in order to avoid such complications.

LA FOLLETTE TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

Speaks Tonight at West Side Turner Hall, Milwaukee.

RESULTS WAITED

Politicians Are Anxious To Hear the Tone of His Speech.

HARMONY IS WANTED

(Special To The Gazette.) Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 30.—Tonight Governor La Follette opens the republican campaign in this city and sounds the key note for all other spellbinders to follow during the thirty-four days before election. His opening address will be at the West Side Turner hall and politicians are anxiously waiting to see whether the key note will be one of conciliation or open defiance.

Exciting Event.
The meeting will be an exciting event and not in years has so much interest been shown in the opening of any political battle as is now exhibited. It is believed that if there is to be any harmonizing of the two factions of the republican party the governor will sound the key note in his address tonight. One prominent leader of the conservatives says that if the governor speaks as the mouthpiece of a faction he will lose fully 20,000 votes but if he offers a conciliatory move he will gain twice that number.

Senator Quarles.
Senator Quarles said in an interview: "If it is conceded, as I understand Chairman Bryant to say, that Senator Spooner's re-election is to be without any opposition I can see no earthly reason for any discord in the republican party of Wisconsin. Time enough has now elapsed to heal the wounds and calm the passions resulting from the state convention. It is self evident that no party division should be tolerated which involves personal ambition only. There is as I view no serious difference between the two wings of the party as to any question of principle. Both divisions are equally anxious for a solution of the taxation and election laws but one is not as radical as the other. Conciliation is needed."

Will Prepare Speeches
Both Senator Spooner and Senator Quarles will spend from now until the 3rd of October in preparing their campaign speeches and will then begin their tours as laid out some days ago.

ST. PAUL ROAD WANTS STREET

Aldermen Object, and Cause the Work Stopped Right Away.

Another clash occurred this afternoon between the St. Paul railroad and the city authorities about the road occupying a portion of a street with their tracks. It is practically a repetition of the question that arose over Prospect avenue and was never settled.

The company has a slide track running parallel with Race street from River street up to Academy street. It is used for a sliding to get to the Badger Coal Co's yards and to Randolph & Donahoe's warehouse.

Since the new station has been built the company wished to get more room between this track and the station so yesterday Foreman Anderson set a gang of men at work excavating alongside the track from Jackson to between High and Academy street. The excavation was completed today and the section of track set over the width of the track toward Race street. According to Engineer Kerch the track encroached on the street before it was moved and is now entirely in the street.

The residents of the street protested against the move and the aldermen and city attorney sent Officers Brown and Fanning up there to stop the work and arrest anyone that tried to continue it. They put a stop to the work and Street Commissioner Frederick put a force of men at work covering up the tracks.

The great mistake made by the city in this matter was that they left the question unsettled at the time of the Prospect avenue trouble. City Attorney Burpee was anxious to have the case settled by the supreme court at that time, but he was overruled by the council.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE GIDEONS

HELD IN THIS CITY OCTOBER 11
AND 12.

SEVERAL STRONG MEETINGS

Rally Will Open with a Banquet and Close with Union Service
Sunday Evening.

Members of Janesville Camp No. 2 of the Order of Gideons are making elaborate arrangements for their annual meeting which is to be held in this city on Saturday and Sunday, October 11 and 12. As this city is the birthplace of the order, which has grown into national prominence, an unusual interest, which extends beyond the local membership, attaches to the coming meeting and many prominent Gideons from all over the country will be present. Through this order Janesville has become known all over the United States, especially among the traveling men.

Leaders Are Coming.
J. H. Nicholson, national secretary for the order, has charge of the program and his wide acquaintance with the leading Gideons of the country has enabled him to secure some exceptionally strong attractions for the meeting. This has been made all the more possible by the fact that a meeting of the national executive committee is to be held in connection with the rally and this committee meeting will bring the national officers here. This executive meeting will be held in the parlors of the Congregational church, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Will Banquet
The general Gideon jubilee will open with a grand banquet for the members on Saturday evening at six o'clock. Arrangements for the banquet have not been wholly completed but it will be served in the parlors of the Baptist church and there will be music by an orchestra while the menu is being enjoyed. The material feast will be followed by a post-prandial program at which Robert Clark, of Indianapolis, will preside as toastmaster.

Good Responses
An especially fine program of toasts has been arranged and the following responses will be given: "Why Am I a Gideon?" National Treasurer Frank A. Garlick, Chicago; "What Am I Here For?" W. A. Shaw, Lake Mills; "The Line We Carry" National Superintendent Charles H. Palmer, Chicago; "The Button—What It Is For" S. E. Hill, Beloit.

Gideon Camp-Fire
At 7:30 on Saturday evening there will be a rousing Gideon camp-fire in the auditorium of the Baptist church, to which the public is cordially invited. Indeed the public will be welcomed to all of the sessions of the rally with the single exception of the banquet. C. C. Campbell, of Darlington, will lead the congregational singing at all the meetings and those who have heard him say that his leading is an inspiration in itself.

At the Saturday evening's camp-fire L. K. Crissey, president of the Janesville camp, will be the moderator and words of welcome will be spoken by Judge D. F. Dunwiddie. The response will be given by W. A. Shaw, of Lake Mills. The program will also include a violin solo by Oscar Halverson, some vocal numbers and music by the orchestra. There will be "Camp Fire Sparks" three-minute talks by prominent Gideons, interspersed with songs, and the program will close with a question box, conducted by L. Williams of Chicago. This will be similar to the one which Mr. Williams conducted at the national convention and which was one of its strongest features.

Early Service
The services on Sunday will commence with a "Preparation Service" for the Gideons, held in the First M. E. church at 8:30 o'clock in the morning. This will be a prayer and testimony service, a veritable Gideon love feast, and the leader will be L. Williams of Chicago.

Gideons Will Preach
Five of the local churches are lending their co-operation to the Gideons in this rally and the pulpits of these churches will all be filled by leading members of the order at the 10:30 o'clock service in the morning. Splendid speakers have been chosen to take charge of each pulpit and deliver the sermon and these men will each select three associates at the preparatory service to assist them in the pulpit. Those who have been chosen to take charge of the services are as follows: Frank A. Garlick, Chicago, Congregational; L. Williams, Chicago, Baptist; R. L. Adams, Madison, Court Street M. E.; W. A. Shaw, Lake Mills, First M. E.; Charles H. Palmer, Chicago, Presbyterian.

Men's and Women's Meetings
At three o'clock in the afternoon, a ladies' meeting will be held in the Court Street M. E. church, led by Mrs. L. Williams, of Chicago, and others. At the same hour a men's mass meeting is to be held in the Y. M. C. A. building. This was one of the most fruitful sessions of last year's rally and the coming men's meeting is being anticipated with pleasure. F. C. Harder, of Plainfield, N. J., has been chosen as the moderator and the principal address will be given by Charles H. Palmer of Chicago. There will be short talks by several of the Gideons and the song service will be led by C. C. Campbell.

Young People's Meeting
At 6:30 o'clock the Christian Endeavor societies and the Epworth Leagues of the city will unite with the Gideons in a union prayer service at the Presbyterian church. The Gideons will have charge of the meeting and A. E. Nielsen, of Milwaukee, has been selected as the leader.

Union Evening Service
A union service of all of the churches, with the Gideons in charge, will be held in the Congregational church, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock and as this will be the closing service of the rally, every effort will be made to have it the best. Frank A. Garlick of Chicago, will be the moderator and fifteen-minute addresses will be given by L. Williams, Charles Tate and Charles H. Palmer, all of Chicago. Music will be furnished by the chorus choir of the Congregational church. It is the intention to close the union service promptly at 9 o'clock and hold an after meeting for those who care to stay. The rally will come to a close with the Gideon circle, their song and benediction.

Growth of the Order
At least twenty-five prominent Gideons from other cities will be present at this meeting. The order was three years old on the first of last July and it now has a membership of 2,300 Christian travelling men, representing every state in the union and the order is now being taken up enthusiastically in Canada. There are at present over thirty camps in the United States and new ones are constantly being organized. Janesville camp has about fifty members.

JUSTICE COURTS HAVE BIG BUSINESS

Cases Come Up for Settlement and Are Continued for Disposed Of.

Jesse Earle had a long string of cases to handle in the justice court yesterday morning, but the parties in none of them were ready for immediate settlement, so postponement was the order of the day.

Bunch of Cases
October sixth was the date set for hearing the case of William Monahan against the Chicago & North-Western railroad, to recover money alleged to be due the plaintiff for labor. Martha Brownell, as administratrix of the estate of I. C. Brownell, deceased, against H. S. Sloan; the same complainant against Fred Anderson, garnishee for H. S. Sloan; Otto Hell against Charles Russell was taken under consideration for a decision until Wednesday, while the case of G. H. Richter and W. Richter against James Young was held until later in the day for hearing.

Also Adjudged
Justice Reeder disposed of the case of Charles Brierty against James Young, in which the plaintiff sues for twenty-two dollars, its interest and the costs of the suit, alleged to be due for goods purchased of the defendant, by setting the date for a further hearing to October 6.

SIDEWALKS ARE NOT THE BEST

Milton Avenue Improvements Have
Shape for Travel.

During the past rainy week there have been repeated cases where women, and sometimes men, have come to grief on Milton avenue. Near the foot of the street there are several sidewalks which owing to the new grading for the paving, are at some height above the curbing. On a dark night after a wet day, where the footing is none too secure, it is an easy matter for some one to step or slip off the embankment. Several women have tried the experiment and have emerged with their dresses well covered with mud.

Grade Dangerous
Several persons who ought to know, have said that the grade of the sidewalks along that part of the street should be changed immediately. With a coating of ice on the cement walks, prospects will be favorable for a number of accidents this winter.

WITH THE ATHLETES.

Members of the Milwaukee Ten Pin league, the oldest pony league in the city, have elected officers for the present season, and will bowl the first game about Oct. 15.

Milwaukee contestants for the woman's tennis championship of the state are beginning to be dubious regarding the possibility of playing off the tourney if the rainy weather continues.

"Bob" Palmer of Milwaukee broke the state bowling record by running up a score of 289, the best previous record being 278 by Helme Hasehuhn the Chicago cracker.

Madison men have never been so optimistic in their forecast of the season's football work. The great problem is a strong back field.

Among the many claimants of the state base ball championship are the Portage "recruits" and the New London team.

There is a chance that the Ajrecaim Association will relinquish Kansas City if the Western League will drop Milwaukee. In that case the Americans will probably take up Grand Rapids, Mich.

With but four more preparatory games before the Michigan game which is only five weeks away, it is probable that the Badgers will be given some stiff work this week.

If pending negotiations go through the American League will secure the Columbia University Athletic grounds for New York base ball games.

Although the papers have not yet been signed, James J. Corbett has stated that he will meet Jeffries next May. He will keep up light training until his theatrical engagement is completed.

Famine Menaces In Sweden.
Stockholm, Sept. 30.—Famine is menacing many districts in northern Sweden, in consequence of failure of the crops. Money to buy foodstuffs for the people and fodder for the cattle is urgently required.

Smallpox at Youngstown.
Youngstown, Ohio, Sept. 30.—John H. Lytle, a prominent furniture dealer and proprietor of an extensive lumber yard here, died in the detention hospital of smallpox.

by the Scores with Their Samples.

An obscured sky overhead and a small river of water underfoot played havoc with the sales of the storekeepers last week. However anxious people might be to spend their money, they preferred to do it without the accompaniment of a drizzling rain. On the other hand the hotels did a bigger business than at any time for several months. All of the wholesale houses were sending out their winter lines of samples and the drummers took their orders regardless of atmospheric conditions.

Too Wet to Buy
One dry goods store proprietor said that the falling off in his sales had been considerable in the last week. He supposed that he had suffered less than other tradesmen, but said that his loss amounted to a good deal more than he liked to think about. "At this time in the year," he said, "the ladies are all doing their winter purchasing, and most of them had made their plans some weeks ahead. Those who had decided on last week for their shopping did not change their plans, but the others stayed at home. The rain must have had more effect on the stores where the people go in and buy because they see something they fancy in the window."

"Hello Central"
Telephone orders at the grocers and butchers took a decided jump in number. Housekeepers who make it the rule of their life to personally inspect everything they buy for the kitchen, lost heart and looked up the phone directory. Druggists spent the days in reading behind the prescription case, and in filling occasional doctors' orders.

A Different Tune
While the storekeepers were complaining of the existing stagnation, the hotels' sample rooms were filled to overflowing with case after case of every conceivable line of goods, each exhibit presided over by a genial drummer no rebuff could dishearten. For them the rain and cold winds proved rather a blessing than otherwise, as it gave the local dealers more leisure to look over the goods offered for sale. One clerk said that more travellers had been accommodated in the last week than in the two months previous, and that all of the sample rooms had been filled from Monday morning to Saturday night with several sellers in waiting all of the time. Another pointed to the fact that nearly three pages of the register were filled by the names of the guests on last Monday alone.

Milton College Football Team.
The college football team of 1902 promises to be the best the institution has ever had. Although the team is made up of several new men, the boys are working hard every night and are fast getting into shape. The team has a regular coach this year. This is J. Frederick Whitford whose work on the team last year was enough to give anyone confidence in his ability as coach. Besides this, the people of Milton ought to know that the management of the team, the selection of players, etc., is in the hand of a football committee consisting of the coach, the captain, B. F. Johanson, Dr. M. L. Brown and Prof. A. E. Whitford. This plan puts the management of football affairs on a firm basis and should enlist all the lovers of good, clean sport.

People are urged to come out and see the boys practice at 4:30 and thus encourage them. Look out for the schedule of games to be published later. The first game is Wednesday October 1st, at Watertown, Wis., with Northwestern University.—Milton Journal.

DISLOCATED HIS SHOULDER

Joseph Ammer Fell From His Wagon
To The Hard Pavement

Joseph Ammer, who resides on Madison street, met with a severe accident yesterday morning. In alighting from his wagon, near the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, he tripped on one of the reins and fell heavily to the ground, dislocating his right shoulder. The injured man went to Dr. Walter Merritt's office and Dr. Merritt and Dr. W. H. Palmer returned the bone to its proper place. The dislocation was an unusually bad one and it was found necessary to administer an anesthetic before the shoulder could be set.

BEEF SUGAR CROP IS HARVESTED

Its Proportionate Yield Can Not Yet
Be Determined by Experts.

In the course of a week or two the beef sugar crop will be harvested and shipped to one of the factories which the Wisconsin Beef Sugar company has distributed in various parts of the state. So far as can be judged from the appearance of the crop as it now stands, it is everything that could be expected. Walter Helms spoke very favorably of the experiment as it has been tried this year, but as could make no statement regarding the proportionate yield to the acre until later.

Many Hindrances
Whatever the success of the crop may be, this year's experiment is not commonly regarded as a fair test of the adaptability of this soil for beef sugar production. The heavy rains have not given normal atmospheric conditions and when it has been possible to work the field it has been necessary for the farmers to spend their energy in carrying for other fields than the small area which were planted with the sugar beets.

Machinery Received
Beet diggers have been recently received to aid in the harvesting of the crop. The digger has a frame similar to that of the hand corn cultivator, but has suspended below it simply two metal spikes parallel to each other. These enter the earth below the root and loosen the earth on both sides, throwing up the entire plant.

SUNDAY SERVICE AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Sixty Men Listen to the Afternoon
Talk by Rev. Warner on "Problems of Christianity."

Nearly sixty men attended the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon and listened to an earnest talk by Rev. Warner of the 1st M. E. church. His subject was, "Problems of Christian Living" and was put in such a form as to be especially attractive to young men.

After Rev. Warner has closed his address short speeches were made by J. A. Craig, J. W. Scott, W. E. Mack and others. The meeting was one of the largest in attendance for some time past and the hour was considered profitable by all who were present.

"The Tide of Life."
The scenic environment of "The Tide of Life," the sensational drama of the heart that is to be at the Myers Grand Wednesday night is something that attracts wondering comment wherever the play is seen. Among other machinery carried by the company is a powerful dynamo that sends 1,000 volts of electricity surging through the wire on which one of the villains of the play is electrocuted. This is an incident so daring that it must be seen to be believed. The man leaps from the window of a large office building and catches the wire, which settles his villainy in short order.

Brief News From County Towns

AS TOLD BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

CLINTON

Clinton, Sept. 30.—About three o'clock Sunday morning the house on J. F. Kemmerer's farm, three miles northwest of town was burned. The flames awakened hired help who occupied rooms up stairs, when it was discovered the whole back end of the house was on fire. Nothing was saved from the kitchen and dining room, but with dexterity the furniture and some clothing was removed from the front part. The farm was occupied by Mr. Schwartz, who was married only ten days ago and he and his bride were just getting settled in their home. On account of the rainy weather but little had been done, so their loss will be very slight. The goods burned were the property of his father, who will be the greater loser, although everything was insured. It is hoped that it will cover the entire loss. The wood shed contained about twelve cords of wood, all worked up ready for use, which is a great loss. The evening before the cook stove had been moved from the back kitchen into the dining room and it is thought a live coal may have unnoticed been dropped, and it only needed time to break out into flames. It is understood that Mr. Kemmerer will rebuild immediately on the old site.

Mrs. Alice Inman and Mrs. Eda Scott, received over one hundred of their lady friends last Wednesday between the hours of two and six. The delightful piano music furnished by Mesdames Loveland, Schaub, and Budlong and violin solos by Mrs. Marcia Holmes of Milton, added much pleasure to the occasion. Light refreshments were served under the skillful supervision of Mrs. W. E. Ellthorpe, gracefully assisted by the Misses Ethel Kemmerer and Ella Weaver. Flowers were used profusely as decorations throughout the house.

ning, was also one of the occasions of the season. Frank, with his parents are about to depart for their new home in the northern part of the state.

The long continued rainy "spell" of the past week, while of no doubt of much value in some ways, has been a great drawback to the harvesting of corn and other outdoor employment. If, however, the frosts will hold off for a week or so longer, the crops will be well garnered without any damage worth mentioning.

The old hotel was the scene of another festive gathering last Friday evening, and with its decorations of autumn leaves, golden rod and wild sunflowers, corn stalks, and pumpkin vines lighted up by gleaming eyes and widespread grins from a number of jack-o'-lanterns, presented a most inviting spectacle. The occasion was a kind of harvest social given by the young people of Evansville. At the top of the flight of stairs in a picturesque nook, a fortune telling gypsy revealed the future to the curious. Doughnuts and coffee were served by way of refreshment, the proceeds to go to the building of the new Baptist church now in contemplation.

The pulpit was occupied by a young minister of Beloit last Sunday, during the absence of Mr. Hoig, who is on a short visit to his parents in Michigan. The text was taken from Genesis 32-26 and the sermon most ably and beautifully expounded.

At eight o'clock, as the strains of the wedding march filled the home, the bride and bridegroom, Miss Florence E. Locke and Harry D. Millard, took their places under an arch of evergreens, accompanied by a brother and sister of each as groomsman and bridesmaid, and there, hand joined in hand, pledged their troth each to other, and were solemnly pronounced man and wife by Rev. C. Bulley of Shopiere.

Congratulations, sincere and deep, followed and after an hour of social pleasures the company sat down to a sumptuous banquet prepared by the mother of the bride.

CHECKED SOUTH.

When the first keen winds of winter begin to be felt in the North, many an invalid is hurried away by anxious friends to the kinder climate of the South. The cause is apparent as you look at the hollow cheeks and listen to the rasping cough of the traveler.

Persons suffering with weak lungs, obstinate cough and severe hemorrhage even, have found the change of climate made unnecessary by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens weak lungs, cures obstinate coughs, and builds up the body with sound, healthy flesh. It cures the first stage of consumption, no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine nor other narcotic.

"I feel that I owe a debt of gratitude to a friend for recommending your medicine, as well as to you for preparing such grand remedies for chronic diseases especially, which the doctor failed to reach," writes J. B. Staples, M.D., of Barclay, Orange Co., N.Y. "I desire to pass the good word along for the benefit of others who need your remedies. I am a railroad agent, and four years ago my work kept me in a warm room and stepping out frequently into the cold air gave me bronchitis, which became chronic and deep seated. Doctors failed to reach my case and advised me to try a higher air, but, fortunately for me, a friend also advised me to try Dr. Pierce's medicine. I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and by the time I had taken the first bottle I was better, and after taking about four bottles my cough was entirely gone. This was a year ago last winter, and again last winter I took about three bottles to prevent a return of the trouble. I have found no necessity for seeking another climate."

CLUB WOMEN TO ASSEMBLE HERE

FOR PURPOSE OF FORMING A DISTRICT FEDERATION.

MEET AT MRS. MCGOWAN'S

A Luncheon Will Be Served by the Local Club Women Who Will Attend.

Club women, representing eleven of the leading study clubs in this district, will assemble in this city tomorrow for the purpose of forming a district federation. This federation, if formed as it doubtless will be, will be the first district federation organized in the state of Wisconsin. The meeting of the delegates will be held at the home of Mrs. E. D. McGowan, 154 Milton avenue, and the session will open at 11 o'clock. On their arrival in this city tomorrow morning, the delegates will be met by a committee of local club women and escorted to Mrs. McGowan's home.

Will Serve Luncheon
At 12:30 a dainty luncheon will be served, the hostesses being Mrs. A. E. Tanberg, vice president of the First district, Mrs. E. O. Kimberley, the local member of the committee appointed to consider the advisability of forming a district federation and Mesdames Charles Tarrant, Jas. Mills, Fred A. Capelle, W. F. Palmer, James Waddle, E. D. McGowan, A. C. Jenkins, Walter Helms, H. D. Murdoch and George G. Paris, the local delegates and alternates to the meeting.

Business Session
After luncheon another business session will be held, the ladies hoping to complete all the necessary business in the one day. This meeting is the result of action taken at the district convention held in this city last spring. At that time the plan of organizing the district, so as to bring the federation work closer to the individual club and assure annual conventions, was proposed and heartily endorsed.

Committee Appointed
A committee, consisting of Mrs. Vio H. Campbell, Evansville; Mrs. Mary Plettsch, Monroe; Mrs. Radeker, Kenosha; Mrs. E. O. Kimberley, Janesville and Mrs. E. F. Hanson, Beloit, was appointed to confer with the federated women's clubs in the district and find out if they wanted a district federation.

By this same resolution of the convention, Mrs. A. E. Tanberg, vice president of the district was empowered to call a meeting of the delegates from the clubs, if reports from the members of the committee were favorable. As the majority of the clubs voted in favor of the project, only three being opposed to it, this meeting for tomorrow has been called. Beloit, Edgerton, Evansville and Janesville will be represented in the conference. Two clubs have not yet sent in the names of their delegates but the other clubs to be represented are as follows:

The Delegates

FRIEDMAN IS THE FIRM NAME

Will Build Near the Railway, in a Most Convenient Location.

J. Friedman, of the firm of J. Friedman & Co., of Chicago, the extensive leaf tobacco dealers and Capt. Campbell, their western buyer, were in the city yesterday looking for a location for a large tobacco warehouse. There is no question, but that the warehouse will be located in this city, but just where it has not yet been decided. Several sites are under consideration. The one that is looked upon with most favor is on Gold street, near the St. Paul tracks, about a block west of the Heddies warehouse. In all probability the selection of a site will be made today, or tomorrow, so that there will be no delay in starting the building.

Near A Railroad
They are anxious to get a location alongside of a railroad track where they can get good connections with the tobacco growing districts of the state. Their warehouse will be a large one, capable of holding several thousand cases of tobacco. The firm is one of the most extensive in the west and a large warehouse is necessary to handle the amount of leaf they buy during the season.

Finished This Year
The building will be finished in time to handle the firms 1902 packing of Wisconsin, and will be quite an addition to the warehouses already located in this city.

Railways Fear A GREAT STAMPEDE

Officials Begin to Suspect That Grand Army Men Have Been Working Them.

As a result of the Grand Army excursion rate to Washington, D. C., demoralization has been brought in the ranks of the railroads. The alarm has been caused chiefly in the case of those who are going from St. Paul to the nation's capital and a suspicion is said to be growing among the railroad men that the old soldiers have been "working" them.

Rates Were Cut
From St. Paul to Washington the prevailing rate at present is $19.55, which is based on a $1.00 rate from St. Paul to Chicago. This is a cut of $1 under the agreement, and the Wisconsin Central has been blamed for it by the railroad men.

Not only have the rates been cut down below the agreement, but many veterans have successfully demanded free transportation. This has been effected so generally that the railroad officials have come to the conclusion that the Grand Army has been playing them one against another and that the only way to avoid a stampede is to call a conference of the transportation interests.

Usual Disturbance
Annually some minor scares have arisen at the time of the great encampment, but it is generally stated that the railroads have never been so panicky over the situation as just now.

EXPRESS COMPANY RAISES SALARIES

Employees of the United States Express Company Share Benefits of Prosperity.

The employees of the United States Express company are feeling good over a notice received by them from headquarters stating that they had been given an increase of $5 in their pay from September 1. This order only includes the office force and delivery men, the messengers having received a $5 raise the first of the year. This is not a local move on the part of the company, but affects the employees all over the country and means a large rise in the expense account of the company. The employees can give no reason for the advance in their pay other than the increase in the company's business all over the country.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK ON LIBRARY

Carnegie Building Ready for Plasterers Early the Coming Week.

Early next week the plasterers will begin work on the Carnegie library building. On the first floor the latihing has been completed and the basement will soon be done. The second floor will be taken up last.

Save for the skylights in which the glass will be fitted in a day or two the building is now completely roofed over, and the wiring and gas piping was completed some time ago. Everything is going well considering the force of men which it is possible to keep on the building.

ASSESSMENT IS NOW COMPLETE

COUNTY CLERK STARR HAS FINISHED HIS ABSTRACT.

PRICE PER ACRE IS SOME LESS

Changes Due to the Difference in Laws Regarding Assessments.

County Clerk F. P. Starr has just completed the abstract of assessment of Rock county for the year 1902, giving the assessed value of all real and personal property in the county, as required by section 1073 of the revised statutes.

The total value of all real estate in Rock county is given as $33,977,763, and the total value of the personal property at $5,043,278, making the total assessment $39,021,041. The greatest difference in the statement will be noted in the assessment by the town assessor and the equalization of the county board between the years 1900 and 1901. In 1900 the town assessment was $23,769,807, the equalization by the county board was $18,000,000. In 1901 the town assessment was $42,372,593 and equalized by the board at $40,000,000.

Rise in Values
The rapid rise in values is explained by the fact that the 1901 assessment was at the full value, as fixed by the state tax commission and the 1900 assessment at the assessors' values.

The village of Orfordville has the highest rating of personal property per capita and the town of Avon the lowest. In Orfordville it is $405.43, and in Avon, $83.48. In Beloit it is $96.32, in Janesville, $171.55, Evansville, $227.21 and Edgerton, $223.22. Newark leads the towns in this respect the average there being $245.23.

Price Per Acre
The average price per acre of farming lands in the city of Janesville is $255.81, in Beloit, $142.30, in Edgerton $10.05 and in Evansville $11.74. In the different towns throughout the county it runs from $56.12 in LaPrairie to $17.53 in Avon. The average in 1901 was practically the same as this year only a trifle larger. The total average per acre of all farming lands in the county this year is $45.45 and in 1901 it was $17.18.

Total Values
The total value of the farming lands and improvements is given at $20,356,217, and the total value of lots and improvements at $13,624,516, these two together with the total personal property, give the total assessment for 1902.

The First Death
Taps was sounding, sergeants hurrying through the night roll call and the band wending its way back to its tents after the evening concert. The companies had been dismissed and the men were hurrying to make their beds by the last glimmer of the candles when out rings officers' call. Out of the tents the men tumble, into the company streets half dressed and stand there expectantly. We hear a cheer from headquarters and a deafening shout from across the road where lies our sister regiment, the 2d Ohio. "We start for Cuba tomorrow," shouts some one and everyone howls.

For weeks we have been expecting orders to move and here they are. "First sergeants front and center," calls an orderly and off on a trot goes our sergeant. In a few moments he is back and we crowd around him as he says, "Cervera's fleet has been captured and destroyed. Whoo! her up boys," and scarcely are the words out of his mouth when the band strikes up, "There Will Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight."

Away we go, bare headed, with bare feet, some with only shirts on, crowding around the colonel's tent while he reads the dispatch. Behind the band we file, off to the brigade headquarters. We are joined by the Second Ohio and 14th Minnesota and the three bands strike up "Dixie." For is not the "blue and the gray," merged at last? Men who wore the "rebel" gray now wearing the "loyal" blue, none the worse soldiers for having served under Lee, Hood and Longstreet, and is not our own brigade a southern man who led his brigade so successfully against the Union forces on the same bloody battlefield we are now encamped. A true dauntless man who has doffed the gray and all it meant to don the blue. General Rosser, a man whom all respect. So on we go, a cheering, howling crowd, seizing popular officers and carrying them on our shoulders.

Some way we reach headquarters and General Rosser steps forth from his tent, a tall commanding figure. "Men I rejoice with you. May it be my good fortune to soon lead you where we are most needed" and the rest is lost in cheers.

Over to division headquarters we march, bands playing, men cheering and singing. The Georgia and Indiana regiments joining us there and West Virginia is coming. Whatever General Poland says no one hears amid the cheers and noise. Out on Kelly Field we file. Bands centre and with the Minnesota Indians in their many colored blankets leading we perform a weird ghost dance around the bands.

But bands and men weary, and thinking of the morrow we stagger back to our tents. Over in the hospital lie our sick. They have feebly joined in the cheering and are now gradually dropping off to sleep. Already has fever stalked among us and here the poor sick fellows who but a few months before proudly marched forth at the call of our governor for volunteers. Here they suffer, lying on their blankets uncomplaining heroes.

Off to one side is one poor fellow, his mother's only support, a brave, stalwart man, too weak to cheer he rejoices with us. Night is passing and just as day breaks and the bugle blows first call he raises himself and calls, "Don't leave me boys I am with you" and falls back into that last sleep which knows no earthly waking.

The first of the many who are to follow. Not mother, home or sweetheart, but the men he had to fight with are in his dying thoughts. It is Sunday and as church call sounds we fall in silently and dandle out of our company streets to the plot set aside for our chapel. Here, covered by the flag, amid green boughs cut from the trees, lies our comrade. In front of the rustic chapel erected from logs, we kneel and hear the prayers for the dead read and silently pay our last respects to the dead.

His company goes as escort, but many of us follow over the long four miles to the National cemetery on Missionary Ridge. The band plays a funeral dirge and as the chaplain repeats the words, "dust to dust and ash to ash," the bugles blow the last call to the departed, "taps," the volleys are fired and as we leave the grave the hand strikes up a rollicking twostep and we leave our comrade to sleep that last sleep which knows no waking amid the graves of heroes who in 1863 laid down their lives that we might be one people now and forever.

PRESIDENT IS MUCH IMPROVED
No Further Delay of Complete Recovery is Anticipated.
Washington, Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt's physicians gave out another bulletin announcing that the wound on his leg was in a satisfactory condition. The President occupied a rolling chair, reading and attending to official business. He is not impatient nor restless, but is regarded as a good patient by the physicians. He follows their directions with scrupulous care, and it is predicted by the physicians that the wound will heal without further interruption.

BEARISH FRENZY IN WALL STREET

SECRETARY GRANTS RELIEF

Mr. Shaw Will Permit National Banks to Forego the Necessity of Maintaining Reserve Against Government Deposits.

New York, Sept. 30.—Wall street ran into a frenzy of bearish excitement yesterday, and the stock market closed under almost panicky conditions. Call money shot as high as 35 per cent in the final hour, and stocks were dumped right and left on anybody and everybody who had the courage to buy them. Prices of many of the issues that have been bulled out of all reason during the last month or six weeks simply melted away. Strongly organized pools that were supposed to occupy a position invulnerable against high money rates were hit with the rest of "the street," and were forced to liquidate part of their holding to protect the rest.

Millions Are Available. Prompted by this demoralization, Secretary of the Treasury Shaw announced a further plan for the relief of the money market. Briefly stated, the secretary will permit national banks to forego the necessity of maintaining a 25 per cent reserve against deposits of government money secured by United States bonds.

There is about $130,000,000 of public money so deposited in the banks of the country. This plan will release about $30,000,000 of gold, and make available, according to the secretary's figures, about $130,000,000 of credit.

May Give More Aid. Mr. Shaw further stated that if this plan for relief and the others already proposed are not sufficient, and national banks are not able to obtain government bonds to secure the additional public money which he plans to distribute among depositors, he will accept the same general class of securities as are now made available by state law for savings bank investments as security for public funds to the amount of 65 per cent of the par value of the securities. In following this plan he said that he will determine each case by itself.

ESTIMATES NEEDS OF ISLAND.

Cuba's Secretary of Finance Submits His Budget for the Year.

Havana, Sept. 30.—Garcia Montes, secretary of finance, reported the Cuban budget to be $14,000,000.

At a meeting of the secretaries President Palma said he proposed to ask the senate to solemnize Oct. 10, the anniversary of the beginning of the war of 1895, by distributing $15,000 to poor Cuban soldiers and widows of soldiers. He proposed that $300 each be given to the widows of Jose Marti, Antonio Maceo, Guillermo Moncada and Flor Crombet and to the son of Francisco Borrero. The remainder is to be divided among the soldiers who fought in the revolution of 1895.

LOSES LIFE TO SAVE OTHERS

Section Foreman's Discovery of Broken Rail Leads to Death.

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 30.—William Johnson, section foreman at Tucson, met death in being struck by the engine of the through passenger train while he was endeavoring to flag it to save it from being wrecked. He discovered a broken rail a few minutes before the train was due, and saved the train, but was hurled high into the air and into the ditch. He died two hours afterward aboard the train, which was hurrying for medical assistance. Johnson had been with the road only a few weeks. He leaves a widow and two children.

Russia Restores Road.

Pekin, Sept. 30.—The restoration by Russia to the Chinese of the Pekin-Shan-Hai-Kwan railroad, with the consent of the allies, fulfills the terms of the protocol. The guards who are keeping open the line of communication from Pekin to the sea will be retained indefinitely.

Federation of Colonies.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 30.—Private advice received here from Jamaica tell of a scheme brought forth by George Solomon for the unification of all British colonies in one federation under the leadership of Canada, to be known as "Greater Britain."

Curzon Said to Be Ill.

London, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Bombay says the illness of Lord Curzon of Kedleston, the Viceroy of India, is serious. On the contrary, the officials at the India office say that so far as they are aware there is no foundation for the report.

Indiana Farmer Missing.

Valparaiso, Ind., Sept. 30.—William Mufley, a farmer near Konb, who went to Chicago about a week ago to buy horses, has not been heard from. He had considerable money on his person and it is feared he met with foul play.

Beaten Patient Dies.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 30.—Jacob Rhyerson, an aged patient who was badly beaten by attendants at a private asylum in this city recently, is dead as a result, it is said, of the injuries received.

Cyclist Kills Himself.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 30.—Ernie Johnson, a well-known professional bicycle rider, committed suicide by shooting himself. Johnson traveled extensively with his brother "Artie," and had been a contestant in many races.

WEEKLY MARKET LETTER

Chicago, Tuesday, 9 a. m., September 30.—The wheat market was less exciting during the week than would appear from the fluctuations. In fact, the general trade was light, but September wheat was forced up from 73½c to 75c, closing yesterday at 80c, entirely on covering by shorts, who suffered severely. Fortunate holders were free sellers all the way up, still the shorts kept bidding for it, an evidence that there must have been a larger short interest than anybody believed. It is indeed remarkable, after the experience of the past few months, to find anyone still persisting in selling short for future delivery at a discount. In every instance they had to pay dearly, but it illustrates the craze that has grown upon chronic bears to sell something regardless of prices and conditions, and the further off the future the lower the price, comparatively speaking, and possibly nothing but repeated losses will cure the evil.

You have no doubt observed from my market letters last June, that I have continually advocated one policy, i. e. demand delivery or fulfillment of your contracts. This, I discovered two years ago, to be the best remedy to cure short selling pure and simple. The actual holders of cash grain of any grade in any position, deserve protection, but the one who never owns a bushel of any kind, or never intends to deliver any, deserves no sympathy or protection and should be made to pay the loss when he guesses wrong, injunctively to the contrary. Not alone have the short sellers in wheat suffered, for the same thing took place in May and July corn and oats and now in September corn and oats. It demonstrates the benefit to be derived by demanding fulfillment of contracts made for future delivery. Every Board of Trade firm advertises to "buy or sell grain and provisions for future delivery on future margins." We are not trading on options, (only in one connection can the word option be used. The seller has the option to make his delivery any day during the month in which he agreed to deliver), therefore we stand ready at all times to demand delivery of the commodity we have bought for a customer. I know it is less trouble to have the customer to sell out and replace for a later month before delivery day comes around, but I have found it a very pleasant trouble and extremely profitable to my customers. I advised such of my customers who were long July wheat to have me take the wheat on their contracts when delivered. Those who did reaped a benefit of the increased premium paid in July for July contracts and they were able at the same time to buy for September at a considerable discount. Again I advised demanding delivery on September contracts. More followed my advice this time with magnificent results. I recite this now while the events of last week are still fresh in your mind. "I want you to remember not to forget," and when December comes, if you are long of wheat and conditions are still favorable, cancel your contracts only in consideration for the actual commodity. The bears seem to have much more respect for the possessor of "cash" article than for the holder of a contract. One moment's thought will convince you that the bears will be unable to deliver anything like the amount of wheat they have already sold for December delivery, so it is every active trading month of every year. The long interest in this market is always over 100,000,000 bu, I dare say often double that amount, but always greater than is the total visible supply and the actual wheat held or in transit in all positions in this country out of first hands, and many times greater than is the stock of contract wheat here at any time. The latter grade of grain can only be delivered on future sales and the bulls instead of the bears can dictate prices. All that is necessary then for the bulls to do is to stand together. You can accomplish just what any set of millionaires can and have done, but it will be necessary to act as a unit or confine your operations through one channel and the desired result will be accomplished. There is no commission charge when the actual grain is delivered and no other charges unless the grain is carried. When actual delivery is made or when the price suits you, sell out and buy again for a later month, and with futures at a discount, you are being paid handsome profits. December wheat closed yesterday at 69½c, or 16½c under the September. On what grounds? It represents the same wheat in every respect that does the September.

You have speculated. You will speculate. Perhaps you are speculating. For what sort of an opportunity are you waiting? What conditions would you like? Never do you find a certainty. Sometimes it looks like a certainty. Not often. Just now we find some who think (at least they say they do) that wheat is high enough. They would say this if wheat was 10c a bushel lower. They will say it every day a cent is added to the price. In the meantime, if you take their advice and wait for a lower price to buy or sell short at present prices, you may miss the opportunity you have been waiting for and which is offered, but once or twice a year. The future of wheat is not a certainty. Trade must increase. I think it will. Exports must continue liberal. I think they will. The Canadian crop must not be moved so freely as to prove more than can be disposed of without accumulating at market centers. I think the quality of Canadian wheat will insure its being taken for export immediately it is offered for sale, and our own wheat will be in such demand as we have seldom known. It is now. I depend upon a home consumption such as we have never before witnessed. During the next few months I expect to see active markets with values working toward a higher level, and an opportunity on the bull side that is not often offered. Every possible bear argument that can be presented has been magnified and already discounted in the low price prevailing for futures. If December wheat was 80c right now it would not be a high price. Conditions warrant it, and if 80c were the ruling price, it would be as hard to find a bear as it is now to find a bull. My slogan is and will continue to be "buy December wheat for at least 80c."

During the past four days, in answer to my inquiry of a week ago, I have received advices from every section of the country, almost every township, pertaining to the growing crop of corn. I had intended to give in this letter a complete summary of the replies received, but there are so many and such a variance in their tone that I wish to wait further or more positive developments, which can only be shown by actual husking returns. I will say, however, that in general my advices confirm what we have so often of late heard, that we had raised a very uneven crop and the most deceptive and overestimated crop of corn ever raised in this country. Much of it will be of poor quality, and the yield per acre will be a big disappointment. Every estimate from this on will I believe, be in the direction of a reduced yield, and when the final returns are in I am sure it will be found that instead of having raised a bumper crop, or over 2,500,000,000 bu, the total will be nearer to, if in fact it is, any over 2,000,000,000 bu. On that basis corn ought to be worth 40c. Some time ago, however, on the prediction of a record-breaking crop of corn, railroad stocks went soaring and December corn was forced to 39c on August 9th. At about that time the general public bought stocks and sold corn, and are known to be heavily short of the latter. Knowing this, and owing to the present unfavorable weather, a powerful and successful set of local speculators are straining every nerve to force the shorts to cover. December corn closed here yesterday at 16½c, and they may be able to cause a temporary further advance in it to 50c or higher, but while this excitement is under way, do not overlook the fact that in Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Southern Iowa, and in a large and the best portion of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, there will or should be plenty of corn fit to grade contract by December, with favorable weather from now on. There certainly will be by next May, and should May corn be advanced to over 45c in sympathy with the December, I believe you can safely sell that month, and at around or over 50c, or even now, I would also rather advise selling than buying December corn. A few days of good weather will cause a wonderful change in sentiment and there could come a quick break of several cents a bushel in December corn, when purchases will be again invited. There is no denying the fact that there is a great scarcity of hogs all over the country and the proportion of this year's corn crop that will be fed on the farm will be much less than the average of a 2,000,000,000 bu crop, consequently a larger proportion than ever before will find its way to market, but May corn at close to 40c is low enough and should be bought. Yours truly, GEO. H. PHILLIPS.

A FITTING TRIBUTE

A Citizen of Janesville Pays a Well-Earned Tribute.

The following public statement of a respected citizen, adds one more emphatic endorsement of merit to the scores that have appeared before:

Mr. E. Dillenbeck, of 126 Milton Ave retired farmer, says: "My wife was troubled with kidney complaint for four or five years, and complained of pains in the small of the back in the region of the kidneys. The symptoms all indicated that the kidneys were deranged, and the doctors who treated her said that those organs caused the trouble. As she did not get any better we thought Doan's Kidney Pills might give her relief, and procuring them at the Peoples drug store, I had her use the remedy. It did for her all that could be expected. We can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and you can use our names as saying what has been stated above."

MESSAGE WAS NOT EXPLICIT ENOUGH

State Veterinarian Roberts Resents
Charge of Neglect Sent from Oconto.

State Veterinarian Roberts is much exercised over the dispatch in one of the Milwaukee morning papers to the effect that he has neglected to answer a call from Oconto to come there at once and stop a hydrophobia panic that is raging in that city. Dr. Roberts says that he has only received two messages from Oconto and that both were so indefinite that he was unable to make out what was wanted. That while he telegraphed for further information he has as yet received none.

The Situation

According to dispatches Oconto is in a state of great excitement over the spread of hydrophobia among the cattle of that vicinity. They claimed to have sent for Dr. Roberts and to have received no reply. Tals the Doctor claims is not so. He says:

The Telegrams

"Some two weeks ago I had a letter from a veterinarian there that several head of cattle had been bitten by a dog and I wrote them what to do. Friday last while I was out of the city a telegram came saying 'Come.' I did not know what was meant and before I could answer another came saying: 'Come. Hydrophobia.' I answered this one by asking for particulars and saying that I could not come until Tuesday morning. Since then I have nothing from them."

Has Worked Hard

Dr. Roberts has had to answer many calls during the past summer and has been on several "wild goose" chases, where the people have been scared and nothing has resulted. During his absence his wife answers his telegrams and it was she who received the one on Friday and also answered the Saturday one. The Doctor will go to Oconto as soon as he receives official word that he is wanted.

PREPARING PLANS OF SHADE FACTORY

Specifications Will Be Ready for Contractors to Figure On in Near Future.

Superintendent Hough, of the Vudor Shade company, is now occupied in drawing up the specifications for the factory building to be erected in Spring Brook. In the course of a few days it is hoped that the contractors' bids for the structure will be all in and the contract awarded.

As soon as the firm, who will do the work has been decided upon the construction will be rushed in all possible speed. No unnecessary delay will be tolerated, in order that the plant may be transferred at an early date as is possible.

FIRST COURT CASE IN NEW CITY HALL

Judge Fildes is Now Established in Handsomely New Municipal Court Room.

Judge Fildes took formal possession of the new municipal court room in the city hall this morning. Although everything is not yet in place he has enough in order to carry on the business of the court.

The first business done by the judge in his new quarters was to issue a warrant for the arrest of George Brandt for assault and battery. Fred Rusch was the complaining witness and John J. Cunningham appeared as his attorney. Under Sheriff Cochran served the warrant and brought Brandt into court. He pleaded not guilty to the charge and his case was adjourned to Saturday, October 4 at 10 o'clock. The civil action of Albert Burr against George Kettle was next taken up. Burr is suing Kettle for damages in the sum of $407.50 for injuries received from an assault on the part of Kettle. Kettle pleaded guilty to the criminal charge some time ago and paid his fine. This civil action is the outgrowth of the criminal action. Jesse Earle appeared for Burr and Fethers, Jeffris & Mount for Kettle. They filed pleadings and adjourned the case until October 14.

Not Complete
Judge Fildes expects to have his lighting fixtures in place in a day or two. The contractors report that all the fixtures for the building will be here today and will be put in place at once. The city clerk was using a lantern to illuminate his office last night in order to be able to see to get out his books and papers for council meeting.

Cells In Place
The cells in the City lock-up are now all in place and will be in readiness for occupancy as soon as they are painted.

BOUGHT NEW HORSE FOR FIRE LADDIES

Committee Purchases Handsome Sorrel for East Side Hose Cart—
Looking for Mate.

A handsome sorrel horse arrived in the city this morning from Chicago as the result of the fire and water committee's trip to that city in search of a pair of horses for the East side hose wagon. The committee saw a great many horses but could not find a pair that suited them. The horse they purchased is a handsome animal with a light colored mane and tail and weighed 1,350 pounds in Murock's scales this morning. He is a stock built animal with a good action and should make a good horse for the department.

On account of his peculiar color and build it will be hard to get a mate for him.

Have Unloaded

Driver Gallagher, unloaded the horse from the cart this morning and took him to Briggs blacksmith shop where he was fitted with new shoes. He was afterwards taken to the East side fire station where he will be educated to the duties of the department.

Horses Sold
Both of the old horses have been sold and Chief Engineer Klein has turned the money received for them over to the city treasurer. The horse formerly used by J. C. Spencer will be used with the new one until another horse is secured to go with the recent purchase. The boys will be kept busy for a time teaching the new horse what is required of him.

General Reports Increase in Number of Trial by Court-Martial.

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 30.—Gen. George M. Randall, commanding the department of Columbia, in his annual report to the adjutant general of the army, says:

"There was a considerable increase over the preceding year in the ratio of trials by court-martial to the average of enlisted strength. It is believed to be due in part to the large number of recruits, but in part also to the abolition of the sale of beer at the post exchanges."

Seize James Arthur at Indiana Mines,
Tie Him to Tree and Lash Him.

Sullivan, Ind., Sept. 30.—James Arthur, a night watchman, was seized by whitecaps at 1 o'clock in the morning while making his rounds at the Gilmore mines near here, tied to a tree and severely whipped with bickory switches.
